HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The fair of Division 12 of Providence will open November 2, and great things are expected of it.

The Hibernians of Rhode Island are preparing a great reception for President Keating in November.

The Hibernian Knights of Providence are doing good work for their bazar, which opens with a ball Thanksgiving eve.

Division 1 of St. Paul held a largely attended open meeting Wednesday evening.
There was an entertainment and a good programme.

At the last meeting of Division 1 of Duluth twenty applications were received and referred as a result of the prize contest now going on.

Division 6 of Minneapolis anticipates lots of amusement and a pleasant evening at its grand ball and cake walk on the evening of November 9.

Division 6 of Woonsocket, R. I., will open its fair November 24 with a parade, invitations having been issued to societies of the surrounding towns to take part.

Division 2 of St. Paul will hold an open meeting for Hibernians and their eligible friends Tuesday evening. Several open meetings might be held here with good results.

The annual convention of the Ladies' Auxiliaries of Norfolk county, Mass., was held this month at Quincy. There are eighteen auxiliaries in that county, with a membership of 1,400.

The County Board in Columbus, Ohio, has decided to have a hall similar to the one in this city. The Ladies' Auxiliary will have charge of the care and decoration of the new quarters.

There are a number of members of Division 4, all in good standing, who have not attended a meeting for some time past that the regular attendants would like to meet at the next meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Division 2 of Minneapolis will next Thursday evening introduce what promises to be a pleasant feature of its yearly work. That date will mark the division's fifth anniversary, and for the first time since its organization an entertainment will be given, the programme embracing musical and literary numbers. The guests will include only the ladies of Division 2.

THEATRICALS.

"The White Slave," from the pen of Bartley Campbell, will be played at the Avenue all next week, beginning Sunday matinee. No American drama has continued so long before the public as "The White Slave." The piece possesses all the elements of enduring popularity, namely, a probable story, told in language which has a strong poetical flavor, a number of intensely dramatic situations, an abundance of fine comedy, quaint and witty, and a series of stage pictures of a realistic and thrilling nature. For the present season entirely new scenery has been provided and a number of new mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The tour is under the personal direction of the Campbell-Caldwell Amusement Company.

"As merry as a cricket and twice as lucky" is what those who appreciate a good amusement say of Clark Brothers' Royal Burlesquers, which comes to the Buckingham for a week's engagement commencing Sunday matinee. This company comprises a sextet of clever comedians, twenty beautiful and bewitching girls, together with a grand array of all-star specialties in the olio, all of whom will please the most exacting lover of this kind of amusement. The costumes are handsome, the scenic and electrical effects original and brilliant. In the olio Tenley and Simonds, the greatest of all living Irish mimics and who stand without a rival on the vaudeville stage, leave not an unamused minute. The entertainment concludes with one of the most humorous of up-to-date burlesques yet devised, "The Female Politician," in which pretty and shapely girls in fetching costumes, clever comedians brimful of fun and two score sweet girls give us one of the most entrancing fin de seicle skits created for amusement and novelty.

For next week's attraction at the Temple Theater Col. Meffert announces perhaps the greatest treat ever offered the Louisville theater-going public at popular prices. The play to be presented is entitled "An Enemy to the King," and embraces twenty-seven characters, which will require a largely augmented company. The staging will be perfect, and the costumes, drappings, settings, etc., will be an exact reproduction of those at the Lyceum Theater in New York. The story is a graceful one of the days when chivalry flourished under leathern doublets and feathered hats, when Henry of Navarre pitted his wits against the King of France and surrounded himself with a goodly number of sturdy swordsmen—and a few rascals as well. One of his followers, Brannan de Launay, while on a secret errand meets at a roadside inn an emissary of the King in the person of a beautiful young woman named Mlle. de Varion, who has undertaken the mission in order to save her father from further punishment in the Castle Fleurier.
To make his journey the more secure de Launay masquerades as a servant and makes his own lackey act as his master, which leads to many amusing and complicating situations. The young adventurer, de Launay, and Mlle. de Varion meet and fall in love through an odd occurrence, and then begins a series of thrilling, romantic situations that end only with the final curtain.

The Wexford team have been declared winners of the Pothell Cup presented by Archbishop Croke in 1890. The cup and medals will be awarded at the first meeting in November.

LABOR WORLD.

Notes and Gossip of the Week From All Parts of the Country.

Dave Gorman will succeed President McGill.

Regular monthly meeting of the Central Labor Union tomorrow.

There will be several new unions represented in the Central Labor Union tomorrow.

Fifteen hundred house painters at Philadelphia went on a strike for the eight-hour day.

The boycott on the Chicago News and Record has been indorsed by the Illinois Federation of Labor.

The Cincinnati unions of the United Brewery Workers up to date have donated nearly $1,500 for the imprisoned miners and their families.

All the iron and steel workers now employed in the two mills at New Albany have become members of the Amalgamated Association.

Business Agent Thompson, of the Memphis Building Trades Council, recently skipped out with all the surplus funds of the organization.

Hereafter new unions becoming affiliated with the Illinois State Federation of Labor will have to pay an initiation fee of $5 and one quarter's per capita in advance.

The Illinois State Federation of Labor enters an earnest protest against the appointment of Judge Paxton, of Pennsylvania, as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A Building Trades Council was organized in Peoria lately, with the following trades represented: Steam fitters plumbers, bricklayers, stone cutters painters, stationary engineers, mill workers, tinners, carpenters and brickmakers. Thos.
O'Connor, of the plumbers, was elected President.

Since the election of John Mitchell as President of the United Mine Workers of America, in January last, the increase has been almost phenomenal, nearly 40,000 new members having been installed in that period. Mitchell is an aggressive leader, and has distinguished himself by pushing into new fields and establishing locals in mining districts where heretofore they were unknown. The Miners' National Union now spreads over nearly every State between the Alleghan-ies and the Pacific ocean, and in extending its organization has accomplished greater results in a brief period than have ever been known in the history of the labor movement. John Mitchell is the youngest man ever elected to the office, being only in his thirtieth year. He is also Fourth Vice President of the American Federation of Labor. Notwithstanding his youth his career as an official in various capacities in the organization has been a long and useful one, and he possesses the unbounded confidence of the men in all parts of the country.

BRYAN'S VISIT.

Listened to by Thousands at the Jockey Club Race Track Wednesday Afternoon.

The visit of William Jennings Bryan, the idol of Democracy, brought thousands of strangers to Louisville Wednesday.
During the afternoon he addressed one of the largest gatherings ever assembled on the Jockey Club grounds, after which he left for Covington and Ohio.

The feature of the occasion was the appearance here of the Cook County Marching Club, one of the finest bodies of men ever seen on our streets, and embracing in its membership many of Chicago's leading Irish-Americans and high officials in the Ancient Order of Hibernians. While here they attended the Elks' carnival and created a most favorable impression, notwithstanding the unjust as well as uncalled for criticisms of some of the too partisan newspapers.

THE WEATHER MAN

Prevented the Carrying Out of the Irish-American Programme Thursday Evening.

The weather man again interfered with the carrying out of the programme arranged for the celebration of Thursday at the carnival. There were thousands of Irish-Americans present, Mackin Council, Travelers' Protective Association and Red Men, but the grounds were damp and the weather too chilly for out-door exercises. The crowds accepted the disappointment good-naturedly, declaring that when rain is again needed they will arrange for an Irish-American celebration. It is probable that some one of the societies will arrange for the carrying out of the programme at some future date, with new features added.

CASTLETOWN.

The Magnificent Kildare Mansion Purchased by an American.

Eugene Kelly, of New York, has purchased Castletown, County Kildare, the magnificent old mansion standing in a splendid park at present rented by Lord Chief Justice Sir Peter O'Brien, known in Ireland as "Peter the Packer," for his achievements in packing juries for the trial of prisoners under Balfour's coercion act.

Castletown has been inhabited by several famous Irish officials and noblemen.
It is in the midst of a fine hunting country and within an hour of Dublin.
Eugene Kelly, who is expected to keep up great style there, will take possession this month.
